MISSOULA--

Deadline for obtaining reservations to the University of Montana Friends of the Library Banquet has been extended to 3 p.m. Wednesday, April 23. Banquet reservations, accepted at the UM Library Office, also may be made by phoning the office, 243-6800.

This year's banquet, including dancing and candlelight atmosphere in a cafe setting in Paris, will be at 7 p.m. Thursday, April 24, at the Edgewater Restaurant of the Village Motor Inn. Cost is $5.50 per person.

The banquet, on the theme of the "Lost Generation" of the 1920s, will include tossed green salad with choice of dressing; broasted spring chicken; steamed rice with shrimp; French peas with sauteed lettuce and onions; rolls and butter; beverages, and ice cream.

Dr. Richard G. Landini, UM academic vice president, will discuss the era of the 1920s as banquet keynote speaker. Music will be presented by the Town and Gown Music Appreciation Society of Missoula.
